

ENVIRONMENT POLICY

HML are committed to maintain our organization remain environment friendly while achieving our business goals and contribute to sustainable development.

HML will achieve this by

Minimizing the consumption of natural resource through process improvements resulting in reducing, reusing, and recycling.

Preventing pollution through reduced consumption, improved processes and use of environmental friendly materials.

Continually improving the environmental performance.

Complying with all relevant environmental legislation and regulatory requirement.

Contributing to conservation of natural resources using renewable sources of energy and water harvesting.

Contributing to social forestation in association with local government bodies.

Creating environmental awareness among through camps and projects with special emphasis on educational institutions.